

Over 30 years of fun and friendship

EVER since it formed in 1977 Solihull Plus has provided days-out and social events for young people.

The organisation is still going strong and meets every Wednesday at Silhill Football Club. Last year, members celebrated the club's 30th anniversary and are at present gearing up for a trip to Worcester.

At the moment the organisation have about 30 members - aged between 18 and 35 - but they are always on the look out for more.

According to Richard Haydon, who has been with the group four years, Solihull Plus offers something for everyone.

"It gives people a chance to socialise and is particularly good for people who are new to the area. If people have moved to Solihull then they will be away from their friends and by joining us they will have a chance to meet new people."

Quizzes, dinners and sports event are just some of the activities that are on offer.

On occasion, Solihull Plus will team up with similar groups from around the country.

Chairman Mike Clarkson, said: "I have been with Solihull Plus over 15 years and have enjoyed every second of it.

"If you are new to the area or just want to find something else to do on a Wednesday evening or weekend why not come along and see what we can offer."

There is an annual membership of £25 and a £2. charge for every Wednesday attended.

However, the first four visits are completely free.
