

The automatic monetary raise on the membership fee should be removed from the constitution.

It is considered that a far better way for any raise of the membership fee is via a requirement being clearly identified and brought to such meetings as a motion. This would have far more support from a membership that can clearly see the need for any such rise. (Similarly in the event a drop can be clearly identified then it would also be voted on in the same manner).

Proposed by Southern Area